

MINERS MET DEATH
BY AN EXPLOSION*TWENTY MEN KILLED AT BRUET, BOHEMIA.

An Explosion In the Colliery at that Place Wrought Fearful Havoc this Morning—The Funeral of the Czar at St. Michael's Cathedral—General Foreign News.

BRUET BOHEMIA, Nov. 12.—Twenty miners were killed by the explosion in a colliery this morning.

Moscow, Nov. 12.—The funeral train with Czar Nicholas, the czarina, Princess Alix, numerous grand dukes and grand duchesses, the prince and princess of Wales, high officials, and officers arrived at 10:30 a. m. yesterday. The party were met on the platform of the railway station by the governor of Moscow, the high officials of the city, Grand Duke Michael, Grand Duke Sergius and his wife, Grand Duchess Elizabeth, M. Durnova, minister of the interior, and a most brilliant assemblage of military officers. The clergy offered prayers as the coffin was lifted reverently from the train on which it had made the long journey from Sebastopol. A procession was then formed, and when all was in readiness the prince of Oldenburg and several generals removed the pall from the coffin. Czar Nicholas and the grand dukes then bore the coffin to the hearse that was in waiting. In the meanwhile cannon were booming from Kremlin fortress.

At 11 o'clock the procession started for the Cathedral of St. Michael the Archangel. The cortege was of immense length. In it imperial standards were borne by high functionaries, each of them followed by one of the dead czar's saddle horses. General officers carried the czar's armorial bearings, state swords, and insignia and decorations. Then followed a long array of clergy bearing emblems of images, deputations, corporations and trade societies.

The funeral car was drawn by eight horses and there was a guard of honor composed of eighty cadets. The cords of the pall, which had been replaced, were held by generals. Then followed on foot the czar, the princess of Wales, the grand dukes, the imperial household, etc. Behind them came the czarina and other imperial and royal ladies in mourning coaches. The military escort was made up of five companies from different regiments, a battery of artillery, and five squadrons of cavalry. The route from the railway station to the Kremlin was lined with troops.

The streets in the vicinity of Kremlin were black with humanity, and the crowd extended as far as the eye could reach. It was 1 o'clock before the procession arrived at the cathedral. Here the pall was again removed and the coffin was borne into the church with the same ceremony that had marked the transfer at the station. It was placed upon an immense catafalque that had been erected in the nave. This catafalque was surmounted by a canopy embroidered in gold. The whole interior of the church was decorated with white and black draperies embroidered in silver. The tombs of the czars whose remains are in the cathedral were covered with black velvet, on which the epitaphs on the tombs were reproduced.

The Metropolitan of Moscow conducted the funeral service, which was marked with all the pomp and circumstance of the Orthodox church. The public on being admitted into the Cathedral of St. Michael to see the remains lying in state found the coffin guarded by military deputations. The most touching scenes were witnessed in the cathedral. The people prostrated themselves reverently before the coffin, at the same time offering brief prayers for the repose of the soul of Alexander III.

Since dawn the streets of Moscow were lined with thousands upon thousands of persons awaiting the arrival of the remains of the Czar Alexander. The city disappeared almost under its mantle of white and black draperies and wears a mournful and solemn aspect. The leading streets and thousands of houses were covered with crape. Festoons of crape cover the sidewalks. Arches, obelisks and masts have been erected and covered with elaborate and somber designs. Everywhere can be seen portraits and busts of the late czar draped with crape. The train conveying the remains arrived Saturday evening at Boutovo, a short distance outside of Moscow, where it remained during the night. The imperial family and the royal guests spent the night at Czaritzino palace, which stands in the middle of an immense park. The journey was resumed early in the morning, trains bringing to the city portions of the suite, who arrived at 8 o'clock.

Armenians Massacred by Kurds.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 12.—Three thousand Armenians, including women and children, are reported to have been massacred in the Sassoun region near Moosh, Turkish Armenia, during a recent attack by Kurds. Twenty-five villages were destroyed. The Turkish officials declare the report is not true and it grew out of the suppression of a small rising in the region in question. The British ambassador is making inquiries into the matter.

RECOUNTS TO BE ASKED.

Judges and Clerks Make Mistakes Aneat Supreme Court Decision.

LANSING, Mich., Nov. 12.—There is every reason for believing that in its opinion as to what constitutes a distinguishing mark on an official ballot, which caused such a sensation throughout the state last week, the Supreme court did not intend, as has generally supposed to be the case, to hold that if an elector desiring to split his ticket should after placing a cross over his party ticket and making a cross before the name of the candidate on the opposing ticket for whom he wished to vote, should erase from his own ticket the name of the candidate thereon for whom he did not wish to vote, such erasure would be a distinguishing mark that would invalidate the ballot. The opinion in official circles here is that all ballots marked in the manner indicated above will be held to be legal ballots.

PREPARING FOR SMALLPOX.

Indiana Authorities Will Adopt Vigorous Measures.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 12.—The Indiana authorities are preparing to adopt vigorous measures against the introduction of smallpox from Chicago this winter, and it is highly probable that the legislature will be asked to make a special appropriation to be used in enforcing a quarantine against that city, as well as enact laws that will make it a crime to enter the state from smallpox infected districts without having first complied with the Indiana law regarding vaccination. The Indiana officials claim that the disease has never been thoroughly mastered in Chicago, and that, having once existed there to such an alarming extent, its return in an aggravated form may be confidently looked for the winter.

Illinois State Treasurer Dead.

CARLYLE, Ill., Nov. 12.—Rufus N. Ramsay, treasurer of Illinois, died at his residence in North Carlyle at 5:15 yesterday morning. He complained Thursday to his friends of being sick, and went to bed suffering intensely with the same trouble that has been bothering him for the last ten years—heart disease. He came near dying Saturday morning, but rallied, and seemed better during the day and that night, but at 5:15 yesterday morning he complained of the room being warm, gave one mighty grasp for breath, and fell back on his couch dead. He leaves a wife and three children. The funeral will take place at 11 o'clock to-morrow morning.

PORT ARTHUR IS IN JAPANESE HANDS*THE CITY WAS CAPTURED
YESTERDAY AFTERNOON.

So Say the Official Advices From Shanghai—United States May Be Called Upon to Arbitrate the Difficulty—Meat For the Army Wanted

SHANGHAI, Nov. 12.—[Special].—Official advices are that the Japanese captured Port Arthur yesterday.

TOKIO, Japan, Nov. 12.—United States Minister Dun has communicated to the ministry the substance of an important cipher cable proposition received from Secretary Gresham at Washington. It suggests that if Japan will join China in requesting the President of the United States to act as mediator in settling the war he will exercise his good offices in that capacity. A similar proposition has been sent to China. The cable was received by Minister Dun Friday, and was presented to a special meeting of the ministry. An answer has not yet been sent. The proposition presents a grave question to the ministry. They are urged on one hand by the popular sentiment to continue the war and crush China. On the other hand European powers are threatening to interfere. As between these conflicting influences the ministry finds great difficulty in reaching a decision on the American proposition, but the prospect is that it will be accepted. It is learned that four days ago France made a proposition to the United States to intervene.

Japan does not intend to be robbed of the fruits of its victory by any indefinite arbitration. Therefore in effect it asks: "What do you propose doing, and how much will you give? If you will offer enough, then we will accept the United States as the intermediary to execute the agreement. But we will not go into any blind arrangement by which a third party will determine the whole basis of peace." Being a victor, Japan does not intend to go in on even terms with the vanquished.

Mr. Gresham's cable inquiries to China therefore contemplate: First, China's acceptance of the United States as mediator; second, a statement of China's exact offer to Japan of the terms and amount of cash indemnity it will pay. As to the amount of cash it is not likely that Japan will accept the mediation unless $100,000,000 is offered. This will about represent what Japan actually has spent on the war. It does not ask for exemplary or punitive damages, as the term is used in law, but merely the damages which will reimburse its outlay. When France paid Germany an indemnity for the Franco-German war it represented not only what Germany had spent, but exemplary or punitive damages as well. Japan does not expect this, but it will insist on actual damages. This is roughly figured at $100,000,000. The extra session of the Japanese diet resulted in a law authorizing a war expenditure up to $150,000,000, but this limit has not been reached.

CHINESE ABANDON PORT ARTHUR.

Japanese Troops Invest the Outermost Forts on the Land Side.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—A dispatch from Tokio says the Japanese have invested Port Arthur and that the two outermost forts on the land side have been captured. A dispatch from Shanghai says it is reported there that the emperor is suffering with a fever and is confined to his bed. A dispatch from Shanghai to the Times says the British ship Firebrand has arrived there to protect foreigners. The Petrel is expected to arrive shortly. Admiral Fremantle, commanding the British China squadron, will assemble here on the 15th a squadron comprising the warships Centurion, Crescent, Undaunted, Eolus, Leander, Severn, Spartan, Caroline and Mercury. A panic prevails at New-Chang. Military deserters and refugees are fighting for passages on outgoing steamers.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—A dispatch from Tien Tsin, dated Tuesday and coming by way of Shanghai, says the emperor and his court are preparing to leave Peking for Sing Janfu, in the province of Kiangsu, 125 miles northwest of Shanghai. It is said 70,000 Russian troops are concentrating at Vladivostok.

WILL ISSUE BONDS
FOR $50,000,000*SECRETARY CARLISLE ADMITS
THE FACT TODAY.

Said that the Move Had Been Decided Upon—Nothing Much In the Way of Business Is Expected From the Congress that Will Meet this Winter.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—[Special].—Secretary Carlisle this morning acknowledged that the government would issue $50,000,000 in bonds.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—The approaching session of congress, which will convene Dec. 5, is not expected by those familiar with congressional methods to be one of great activity or productive of much legislation. The fact that it will continue for only three months, that it will be the last session of the congress and that it so closely follows a general election are all considered as indications that but comparatively little real work will be attempted and still less accomplished. The greater part of the session will, in all probability, be confined in an exchange of chaffing over the results of the election, and the session will become memorable more on account of talk than work. It is probable that next to nothing will be done before Christmas holiday, and predictions are freely made that it will be difficult to obtain or maintain a quorum previous to Christmas. After the holidays there will be but two months left for work and speechmaking. It will, of course, be necessary to pass the usual appropriation bill. These bills touch a variety of interests, and while upon one occasion they can be disposed of with considerable celerity they can always be so manipulated as to kill much time when there is any considerable element which desires to delay them.

SPEAKS FOR A "CAT FUND."

St. Paul's Assistant Postmaster Pleads for Rat Killers' Recognition.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—The question has been presented to officials to the postoffice department whether there is authority for the creation of a "cat fund," and the matter has been referred to the division of accounts of the department. The case arises from the assistant postmaster at St. Paul, Minn.

Is it possible, in making your estimates and allowances for 1895, to secure $10 "cat fund," $5, as at present, is not enough, as the following figures show: The cat ought to have one pint of milk a day, or 365 pints. The price of milk in winter 6 cents per quart, and 5 cents in summer; this would make the exact cost $10.04. When kitten harvest is on more milk ought to be given; so above estimate is not exorbitant. Kittens ought to be kept until well able to set up housekeeping on their own account, as an incentive for the mother to keep up her rat killing. Our cat, the past two months, has killed not less than 125 rats. The two highest runs were nine and seven, which, you will admit, were both good night's work. Of course, she and her kittens could not eat all these, but it shows what a good working cat can do when she has the proper incentive.

NEW PACIFIC CABLE.

Tenders for Construction Are All Below Estimates of the Engineer.

OTTAWA, Ont., Nov. 12.—Tender for construction and maintenance of a Pacific cable were opened by the minister of trade to-day. Six offers have been received, all from English firms. The figures will not be made public at present, but in every case they are below the estimates made by the engineer. Both men were robbed of all the money they had on their persons.

THE NEXT CONGRESS.

Latest Returns Show Republicans, 244; Democrats, 101; Populists, 11.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—According to the latest advices Noonan (rep.) has been elected in the Twelfth district of the Lone Star state and Barber (pop.) in the Seventh. Aside from these Texas' delegation in the Fifty-fourth congress will be democratic.

One or two districts in Missouri are still in doubt, but unless the official figures show a change the delegation from that state will consist of eleven republicans and four democrats.

The changes, as noted, make the total strength of the several parties in the next house of representatives as follows: Republicans, 244; democrats, 101; populists, 11. Changes will probably be made in several of the state delegations after the new congress shall have been organized, notice having been given that contests will be made by defeated candidates in several states.

This is the measure passed by the anti-monopoly legislature two years ago, reducing the freight rates of the state very materially, so much so that the railroads raised the cry that its enforcement would mean the practical confiscation of the property, and on this theory took the matter through the courts. It was finally suspended pending action of the federal court.

Politicians are uneasy as to the outcome of the convention.

Wrecked Steamer Still Unknown.

EAST TAWAS, Mich., Nov. 12.—Not even a pencil mark could be found on the wreckage which has been thrown up on the beach by the storm near Fish Point, five miles north of here, on Lake Huron. The identity of the steamer, which went to the bottom somewhere off that point Thursday or Friday, remains a mystery. Everything which has been thrown up on the beach indicates that the steamer was of the largest size, as the broken timbers are all of great strength.

A MAN MAD IN JAIL
AND WANTED TO BITE*PRISONER AT QUINCY ILL. HAS HYDROPHOBIA.

QUINCY, Ill., Nov. 12.—Bound with heavy straps to prevent his hurting himself, John Quinlan, a prisoner at the work house, for twenty-four hours has raved in the terrible agony of hydrophobia. He froths at the mouth and barks like a dog. Quinlan is a tramp and was found by the police two weeks ago in an old deserted house near the railroad yards. He was arrested as a vagrant, and on that charge was sent to the work house for fifty-two days. Shortly after his arrival there the attendants noticed he appeared to be ill, and they let him do pretty much as he pleased. Yesterday afternoon he fell in a fit and raved like a madman. It was all that four men could do to hold him. Dr. Shawgo could do little to quiet the man, and all night long he continued to rave. In the morning he was a little quieter, but he was still tied.

HOBOS USE SIGNS ON THE GATE POSTS

A DIAMOND MEANS THAT THEY ARE "EASY."

A Small Cross Means that the People Are Cold and Unsympathetic While a Cross Within a Circle Means "Be Humble"—A Triangle Represents a Family that Has Played Out.

There are sermons in stones, books in the brooks and chapters on the gate posts, board fences and other prominent features in the landscape territory through which tramps delight to lay out their itineraries, says a police officer. There is no poetry in the cabalistic language with which the knights of the road smooth the pathway of their brethren who may come after them with an unerring course of directions about the people who permanently reside along by it. All is prose at that. There is none of the grace notes of literature; none of the high lights of intellect. The prosody is dislocated and ragged; the code it follows has neither rules or rhythm. It may consist of a single word or a rough, uncouth outline of the hind leg of a dog. But despite all its shortcomings from a university standpoint, it is full of meaning as its students are full of hunger and thirst, and those sad symptoms are what it largely deals with.

Diamond Is Suggestive.

A small diamond shaped chalk drawing on a fence or gate post near a house is a gladdening sight to the eyes of Hungry Higgins or Wayward Wiggins. It means that the residents are full of the milk of human kindness and will give food or other assistance when asked, without question.

The simple sign of the cross on the other hand warns the tramps to pass the house, as its occupants are cold and unsympathetic, and have no ears to lend to the plaint of poverty, either real or assumed.

The triangle pointed downward indicates that the house it refers to has been pretty steadily visited by tramps, and that its people may have become tired of the continued assault upon pantry and patience, but that no harm could ensue from a trial.

Cross Means Be Humble.

A cross within a circle suggests a proper line of procedure to him who tramps and reads. It tells the nomad to go to the house and be a humble minded sinner of a deep religious turn and speak of holy things, and assures him that such hypocrisy will be well repaid by the really pious people within.

A square with one corner cut off makes the average tramp shudder. It means that the house in sight is occupied by people who believe in the dignity of labor and that if he wishes to get assistance from them he must work for it. There are only a few cases on record where a tramp has approached a house pointed out by such a mark, and these prove that sudden insanity does not discriminate among classes in attacking society. He also makes a detour around the house, whose gate post or fence is decorated by a square having a dot in the center. This means that the premises are permeated by one of the dogs herein before alluded to.

MRS. FORD'S BOOKLET IS A GEM.

Janesville's Well Known Poetess Issues Her First Publication.

Janesville's well known poetess, Mrs. Abbie A. Ford, has issued a neat little book called "A Bunch of Poems" containing fifteen of her best productions, among them being "Good Night," "Temptation," "My Wedding Day," "Home," "The Dead Child," "Pansies," "Flowers," "Dark Days," "Day Dreams," "The Sweetest Blossom," "Unrest," "I Know One Heart," "In Our Path," "Our Sacred Hour," and "Gems."

The volume is a gem of originality, the cover being a very pretty mottled fabric with bronze lettering. The whole thing is bound together with bows of pale blue ribbon which make it a very pretty booklet. King & Skelly have the sole agency for the work, and the sale will doubtless be large. Mrs. Ford's poems have created quite a sensation and won her much distinction not only at home but abroad as well. The Gazette congratulates Mrs. Ford on her talent, and wishes her the success in her writings that she deserves.

KLINE GETS A FIRE ALARM PATENT

City Electrician Has Invented a Thermocouple That Works Well.

City Electrician Henry Kline has obtained a patent on his fire alarm thermocouple. A number of these little thermocouples are in use in the shops of the Janesville Machine Company and also in the plant of the Rock River Cotton Company, being attached to the fire alarm service.

To "Suffer and Be Strong."

In other words, to exhibit fortitude when enduring bodily pain is, of course, praiseworthy, but sufferers from rheumatism would undoubtedly forego the exercise of this Spartan virtue calls forth, to obtain prompt and easy relief. It is at their very threshold in the shape of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which arrests this formidable disease at the outset, and acts as an efficient anodyne upon the afflicted nervous system. Take time by the forelock if you feel rheumatic twinges, and give them a quietude at once. Rheumatism is, in fact, a quietude at once. Rheumatism is, in fact, a quietude at once. Rheumatism is, in fact, a quietude at once.

Cases of forty years standing where operations have failed, have been cured by Japanese Pile Cure. Guaranteed by Smith's Pharmacy.

GEN. RUGER WILL GO TO CHICAGO.

General McCook Prefers To Stay in Colorado, Hence the Change.

General Thomas H. Ruger will command the Department of Missouri, with headquarters at Chicago, after all, as General McCook foregoes the assignment to duty in Chicago, preferring to remain in Denver, in command of the Department of Colorado, during the short term he has to serve as major general.

In speaking of this fact the Inter Ocean says: "Brigadier General Thomas Howard Ruger, who, by orders from the war department, will succeed General Miles in the command of the Department of the Missouri, with headquarters in this city, is the senior officer of his grade in the army."

GEN. THOS. H. RUGER.

His detail to this command foretells his promotion to the rank of major general on the retirement of Major General Alexander McCook, who retires from active service April 22, 1895.

"General Ruger was born in New York, April 2, 1833, and is therefore 61 years old, having three years to serve before reaching the age of compulsory retirement. He was graduated at the United States military academy in 1854, so high in his class that he was assigned to the engineer corps. In 1855 he resigned from the army and began the practice of law in Janesville, Wis., which he still prosecuted until the outbreak of the civil war. Among the earliest in 1861 he volunteered his services, became lieutenant colonel of the Third Wisconsin regiment, and its colonel in September 1861. During the civil war he served with distinguished ability and conspicuous bravery both in the Eastern and Western armies. He served in the Valley of the Virginia, in the Army of the Potomac, commanded a division at Gettysburg, and in 1863 was transferred to the West, where he served in the campaign against Atlanta under Sherman. He was commissioned a Brigadier General of volunteers in November 1862, and was brevetted a major general of volunteers in 1864.

"June 28, 1866, he was commissioned colonel of the Thirty-Third United States Infantry; in 1880 he was brevetted a Brigadier General for services in the war, and again brevetted Major General in 1870. He was commissioned a Brigadier General March 24, 1886.

"General Ruger since the civil war has served almost exclusively on the frontier, excepting a term of duty at the United States Military Academy. At present he is in command of the department of California, with headquarters at San Francisco.

"General Ruger is a thorough soldier, gallant, as he has proved himself to be, but he is a decided student, and withal something of a recluse."

MONAHAN PRICKED THE JOURNAL.

Big Milwaukee Audience Cheered Him When He Scored That Paper.

People in Wisconsin are a fair-minded lot and the sentiment in regard to the black leg campaign that the Milwaukee Journal led was clearly shown in Milwaukee when the great ratification was held. J. G. Monahan, the Darlington editor, scored the paper in these words: "The Buzzard sails down over the city. It passes a garden of beautiful flowers. It does not smell their glorious perfume, because its nose is not built that way. It floats down to the slaughter house region and lights on a pile of dead and decaying garbage. Not satisfied with this the bird flies along and finally drops down eagerly on an open copy of The Milwaukee Journal."

The speaker could say no more; he was swept fairly off his feet by the tremendous wave of applause that swept the building. Quiet being restored, Mr. Monahan said solemnly: "And let us devoutly hope the bird will never have to eat so foul a mess again!" This rally so fully met the humor of the great audience that the applause was renewed, mingled with shouts of laughter.

THE BALLOTS TELL SOME QUEER TALES

INTERESTING COMPARISON OF THE VOTE FOR 2 YEARS.

Republicans Gained In Total Vote and Majorities While the Democrats Lost Heavily—Prohibitionists Run Behind and the Populists Show But Small Reinforcement.

Some interesting facts are developed by the comparison of the votes of 1892 and 1894. Figuring the head of the ticket the vote is as follows:

Total vote in Rock county in 1894.....	10,287
Total vote of Rock county in 1892.....	10,268

Gain in two years.....	19
Republican vote in Rock county in 1894.....	6,513
Republican vote in Rock county in 1892.....	6,017

Republican gain in two years.....	496
Democratic vote in Rock county in 1894.....	3,425
Democratic vote in Rock county in 1892.....	4,251

Democratic loss.....	826
Total populist vote in the county in 1894.....	188
Total populist vote in the county in 1892.....	117

Populist gain.....	42
Prohibition vote in the city in 1894.....	49
Prohibition vote in the city in 1892.....	68

Prohibition loss.....	19
-----------------------	----

Democrats Lost Heavily.

While the gain in the aggregate vote in the county was only 19 the republican gain was 496, while the democratic loss in total vote was 826. The prohibitionists ran behind in both city and county while the populists' following increased but little.

To sum the whole matter up the result in this county and all over the United States shows that individual patriotism and love for the welfare of the whole country was considered paramount to party interests. Whenever such is the case the judgment of the patriotic American people can always be depended on to cast their ballot for the principles which are for the best interests of the whole people, and to the patriotic voters of all the parties who united with the republican party to rebuke the party in power we owe the victory of Tuesday last.

SUNDAY SCHOOL WORK BOOMING

The Convention at Joustown Was Largely Attended Yesterday.

In spite of bad roads, the Sunday school convention in Joustown Free Baptist church was fairly well attended yesterday. Everybody enjoyed themselves and stayed to the end of the program. In the absence of the county president Rev. W. T. Miller of Milton, was asked to preside, and he took to the work as one of experience which added to the convention's success. The townships of Milton, Lima, Joustown and Harmony fell in line with the previous nine in choosing township officers, and elected for their respective fields the following named persons whom it is hoped will use their time and efforts in advancing the Sunday school work:

Lima—I. L. Reese, president; C. L. Harris, secretary.

Milton—J. C. Plumb, president; W. A. Thompson, secretary.

Joustown—Rev. Henry, president; W. C. Aldrich, secretary.

Harmony—Jay Campbell, president; Elmer Bingham, secretary.

County Missionary Leas and wife will be in Sunday school convention in Magnolia Corners, Tuesday, Nov. 13; Wednesday, Nov. 14; at Avon village, Nov. 17 and 18 in the United Brethren church at Fulton township, where they would like the Sunday school workers of Janesville and Fulton township to be present and take part in devising plans for future work. Everybody present was pleased with the addresses of Revs. E. M. Dunn, Richard Miller and W. T. Miller Sunday afternoon at the Sunday school convention.

NEW MAP OF CAMP DOUGLAS IS OUT

General Doe Remembered By Christening One Spot "Doe's Pocket."

Janesville militiamen have received a fine map of Camp Douglas, on which are a lot of new names applied to every geographical feature about the camp. The high officials of the state militia have their names reproduced on this map in connection with geographical terms that are highly amusing. The governors are remembered with "Rusk Plateau" and "Peck's Bluff." The adjutant generals must not be forgotten so they have "Chapman Ridge," "Doe Pocket" and "Falk's Pocket." Some other members of the staff were present when the map was named and now it is "Auer Point" and Reade's Signal Rock." The colonels will have enduring monuments in "Caldwell's Peck," "Moore's Summit," "Patton Crags," "Parker's Look Out" and "Blue's Pass." Two of the majors are among the favored ones and the map reads "Graham's Gorge" and Jeff George's Bluff."

THE COUNTY BOARD MEETS TOMORROW

MUCH IMPORTANT BUSINESS WILL COME UP.

County Deposits Will Be Arranged For and there is a Prospect that there Will Be a Hot Fight On the Subject of the New Equalization.

Rock county's legislature will meet at the court house tomorrow and much business is awaiting them. About the most important measure is that of letting the county deposits. Bids were received at noon today and they will be considered, and if things are all right, the contract made during session. Another important matter is the equalization. The committee of the board have agreed to add $190,000 to Janesville's equalization and $100,000 on Beloit. Edgerton, Evansville and Milton remain the same as last year, while the other towns get the benefit pro rata of the $290,000 raised in Janesville and Beloit. The valuation of the county is the same as heretofore. There will doubtless be a strong opposition to the report of the committee, when the matter comes up in open board for adoption. Settlement with the county by the officers will also be made.

The next question is that of caring for the poor. Some of the members are agitating a return to the township system and this will come before the board for settlement. Following these problems will come the "text book" question, which will be brought up in the form of a memorial to the legislature, asking for uniform text books at the expense of the state.

THE LIGHTHOUSE.

The lighthouse stands by the wave washed strand
And sheds its light afar,
While o'er the foam the ships sail home,
Where quiet havens are.

The sea gulls cry, the storm runs high,
The winds blow loud and free,
And fog drops down on yonder town;
It lies upon the sea.

The lighthouse tower is stout and strong
Amid the surging spray;
It will stand the shock on its good rock,
While years will glide away.

JEALOUS.

Mr. D. Bashford cherished high ideas of men, as opposed to women, and had exalted notions of the husband's domination over his household.

Mr. Bashford had forbidden his wife attending the masquerade of the A. Z. A. society. He had his reasons for so doing, but his wife thought he might have made known his wishes in a little less imperious manner than he chose to adopt.

The ball was set down for the evening of the 29th. On the morning of that day Mr. Bashford went down town at the usual hour, but during the forenoon had occasion to visit a section of the city that led him past his own residence.

His attention was suddenly arrested by a young woman with a large bundle, ascending the front steps of his house and ringing the doorbell.

His perplexity was increased when the door was opened cautiously, the young woman admitted promptly, as if by a previous understanding, and the door instantly closed again.

Mr. Bashford's curiosity and suspicion were aroused. Should he linger and solve the mystery or dismiss it from his mind and go on about his business? He debated the question irresolutely for a moment and finally decided that he must know what was going on in his own house.

He had not long to wait. The young woman soon reappeared, but without the bundle, and walked briskly down the street.

She led him to one of the busiest and gayest streets and finally turned quickly into a celebrated costumer's establishment!

Mr. Bashford was astonished. Could it be that his wife was venturesome enough to disobey him and had hired a costume with a view of attending the masquerade?

He did not linger long in meditation. His wife's audacity must receive a severe rebuke.

The proprietor was a woman. He accosted her thus:

"Madam, would you object to making $5 in as many minutes?"

The person addressed intimating that she would have no objection to that sort of thing, he continued:

"Then describe to me accurately the costume delivered by the young woman who entered this store a moment ago or else show me one just like it."

"Well," said the woman, hesitating, "that wouldn't be exactly regular, you know."

"I understand that, but I can prove to you if necessary that I have a right to know, and that no harm can possibly come to you by your telling me."

"Oh, well," said the woman, "I presume it will be all right! The costume was that of a Turkish lady. Here is one just like it, except that the hood is blue instead of scarlet."

"Yes—just so," said Mr. Bashford. "The one that the young woman left at 54 — street has a scarlet hood, has it?"

"Yes, sir."

"Very well. Here are your $5."

He made no allusion when he went home to his 5 o'clock dinner to the circumstances just related. He simply said to his wife before leaving, wondering while at her innocent and unconstrained demeanor:

"As I told you would probably be the case, Louise, I shall be detained down town by business tonight until late."

"Oh, dear, I am sorry! It is so lonely these long evenings when you are obliged to be away."

The "business" which was to detain him was of a somewhat startling character. After spending a short time at his office he proceeded to a costumer's establishment and placed himself in the hands of an artist, who, after a long and tedious process, transformed him into a hideous looking Indian.

This done, he ordered a carriage and gave directions to be driven to the place where the masquerade was to be held.

Mr. Bashford seemed to create quite a sensation in his character of Indian chief. Many stared at him, and some of the women shuddered.

He did not dance at first, but walked with stately tread around the hall, gazing disdainfully on the giddy throng. He was searching for a Turkish lady with a scarlet hood.

It was some time before he found what he sought for. But at last he stopped suddenly, and his gaze lingered in a particular quarter. There was the Turkish lady with the scarlet hood, and her size and general contour were exactly those of his wife. There could be no mistake about it.

"Poity squaw," he said in a guttural tone.

"Noble Injun!" she replied.

"Squaw dances?"

"Yes."

And they took their places on the floor for one of the quadrilles.

After this ensued what appeared to lookers on a scene of desperate flirtation, but in Mr. Bashford's mind there was, of course, no harm in thus paying exclusive attention to his own wife, though a pang shot through his breast at the thought of her accepting such marked demonstrations from one who to all intents and purposes was a stranger.

However, the game must be played, and he played it.

Thus an hour passed very pleasantly, he had to confess to himself, for his wife—if it were she—was unwontedly witty, vivacious and entertaining.

But all of a sudden the Turkish lady deserted him and joined a Roman senator on the other side of the room. She conversed with him in a low tone, danced a set with him and afterward exchanged some private words in an apparently very confidential manner.

This fairly maddened Mr. Bashford with jealousy. Finally he got a chance to speak to her again.

"Squaw must not leave her brave," he murmured.

But she only laughed tantalizingly.

"I think I hear the pattering of rain-drops," he said. "Shall we not stand in the open door, where it is cool?"

"Yes," she replied, "for a few moments. It will be a great relief."

They approached to the doorway and stood looking down a short flight of broad stone steps, which led to the sidewalk. Beyond could be seen a solitary carriage, with a dim light glimmering from the driver's seat. The driver himself had sought shelter from the rain within the carriage.

Mr. Bashford looked cautiously around. No one was in sight. He then coughed in a peculiar manner. The driver instantly emerged, leaving the carriage door open, and walked carelessly forward, seemingly to inspect the harness of one of the horses.

Now was Mr. Bashford's time. He suddenly seized his companion round the waist, thrust his hand under her mask and pressed it over her mouth, and ran with her to the carriage.

"Scream and you will be murdered," he muttered in her ear. He then forced her in the carriage, stepping in after her.

Mr. Bashford held his fair prisoner firmly down to the seat and admonished her in the harshest tones he could command to remain silent.

She cowered down submissively, evidently too terrified to speak, trembling and panting violently.

"What is to be done with me?" she summoned the courage to falter.

"Hush!" he growled.

Still the carriage rattled on through numerous streets and alleys, the driver having been instructed to take a long, roundabout course.

Finally the driver gave a loud cough. This was a signal. He had calculated that the devious course they had taken would so bewilder his wife that her ideas of locality would be completely confused. He wanted to impress her with the belief that she was being carried to some den of unknown horrors.

"Here we are," he growled. "Not a word from you, my beauty."

He rushed up the steps, carrying his captive under one arm. Unlocking the door with his night key, he rushed with her into the house.

A loud scream greeted his arrival. The gas was burning brightly, and in the middle of the room stood—her arms thrown up and her eyes protruding with horror—his wife!

He halted in dire astonishment and dismay, still retaining his hold on the Turkish lady, who had by this time fainted.

"Louise!" he gasped.

But his wife only gave vent to a piercing shriek and retreated to the furthest corner of the room.

"Don't you know me, Louise?"

"What does all this mean?" she said, stepping forward cautiously. "Why are you disguised so frightfully, and who is this you have with you?"

Mr. Bashford's bewilderment was so great that he had entirely forgotten that he was still supporting the Turkish lady, and he now nearly dropped her.

"Haven't you been to the masquerade?" he demanded of his wife.

"To the masquerade! Certainly not."

"Then who is this?"

"That. How should I know? Why, as I'm alive, it's—oh, Dio, what under the sun have you been doing? This is Emma Burch!"

And Mrs. Bashford bent over the prostrate form and set herself about applying restoratives. They soon had their effect. Miss Burch sat upright and looked about her in a confused manner.

"Louise, is it you?" she exclaimed, with a glad look and almost fainting again. "And am I really safe? Oh, horrors!"

She caught a glimpse of the Indian. "There, there, never mind him," said Mrs. Bashford soothingly. "It's only Dio."

"Dio, your husband, the one who kidnapped me? Oh, what does it all mean?"

Both ladies looked at Mr. Bashford inquiringly, who was now forced to explain everything.

He did it with a very bad grace and a good deal of stammering. When he had concluded, his wife said:

"And so you thought the suit was for me when I only had it brought here to accommodate Emma. The same clothes fit us both, and I had it fitted to me because she wanted to be very secret about her costume. Oh, Dio, to think that you should have such little trust in me!"

Mr. Bashford had not a word to say. He had for once in his life been fairly beaten, routed, ignominiously defeated.—Atlanta Constitution.

THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

The old adage, "there's exceptions to all rules," was forcibly demonstrated for the first time in the ranks of the democratic party at the late election. Whatever else democracy may have been guilty of the party was never accused of party disloyalty. The most bitter enemies and the hardest fought battles have always been amicably adjusted before election, and every democrat was expected to vote straight.

The republican party on the other hand was noted for its independence and lack of loyalty to party ties. Every movement that sprang into existence found a fertile soil in republican ranks so that in every state and national election for the last dozen years, it has been the republican party against the field. That weakness resulted has long been painfully apparent, to the men who have watched with solicitude, the party in which they had unlimited confidence.

In the campaign just closed, the conditions were radically changed. The ranks of the republican party presented a solid front, augmented by thousands of disaffected members, who came back to the fold after years of skirmishing in the ranks of the other parties.

The democratic party instead of presenting a solid front, is more demoralized than any great party that ever strove for ascendancy. Thousands and tens of thousands of the better element of democracy cast in their lot with the republican party, while even a greater number stayed away from the polls entirely.

This change of sentiment is very significant.

It means to democracy widespread dissatisfaction, the extent of which can not yet be determined.

It has long been apparent to the ordinary observer, that the administration, and especially the executive, has been out of harmony with a large element in the party and that the free trade and tariff issue was pronounced in the democratic camp.

If a democratic house and senate, after a struggle of ten months failed to accomplish anything that the chief executive would endorse by his signature, it was reasonable to suppose that the rank and file of the party would give expression to their disapproval at the first opportunity. This they did most emphatically last Tuesday, and after all the theories of defeat have been advanced and exhausted, it will be admitted by the democrats themselves that protection to America and American labor was the one and only issue. Like the issue of 1861, it was broad enough to be national, and of so much importance as to command the support of a large majority of American citizens north and south.

The democratic party will slowly recover from this overwhelming defeat, for it possesses more elasticity than any other party in existence, but the country will see to it that before it again gains national prominence that it is in harmony with national prosperity.

Arkansas Forest Fires.
MEMPHIS, Tenn., Nov. 12.—The forest fires in Arkansas and Tennessee, north of Memphis, have about spent their fury. The flames have burned to the banks of the Mississippi river and stopped. The damage by the fires reported yesterday was small, being confined to the destruction of a few fences around plantations on the Arkansas side of the river.
LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Nov. 12.—Reports of the destruction in the eastern part of Arkansas are still coming in. While so far no lives are reported lost, there have been a number of narrow escapes from death.

CRIME IS CHARGED IN FIFTEEN CASES

CRIMINAL CALENDAR CALLED BY JUDGE BENNETT

Several Cases Are Arranged For Trial
Seven of the Lot Are For the Illegal Sale of Liquor—Jury
Cases Will Be Taken Up On Monday.

THE jury cases in the circuit court will be taken up on Monday of next week, November 19. This afternoon the criminal calendar, which contains fifteen cases, was called, and the several cases were arranged for trial. Seven of the fifteen cases are for selling liquor without license, one each for assault and battery, burglary, perjury, adultery, and malicious injury to property, larceny from the person, using obscene and abusive language and assault with intent to kill.

JERRY C. MURPHY, the well known Madison newspaper man, is spoken of in connection with the labor commission. If "Jerry" wants the office, he ought to have it. No man in Wisconsin wrote more telling matter in the campaign than the pungent paragraph that came from the pen of Mr. Murphy. He is in the foremost rank of Wisconsin newspaper men, and while the profession would lose by his appointment to an office, the work he has done and the capability he has shown, entitles him to the best there is. Take off the cover and let "Jerry" dip in.

PROFESSOR J. C. ZINCK will remain in charge of St. Paul's parochial school until Professor Kinzel arrives. Professor Kinzel has accepted the call and will bring the matter before the congregation at Merrill Sunday. They will then decide whether they will let him go or not. In any event he cannot come before the first of January, as he will have to drill the children for the Christmas exercises.

Six weeks from tonight will be Christmas eve. You intend giving something to somebody. Why not decide now? If A. F. Hall & Co., "the reliable jewellers" have what you want they will put it aside for you. If you desire something extraordinary, go tell them about it and if they have it not they will get it.

We must move in a very short time, we have yet too many goods to move. Every article is new, bought within the last three months. We are cutting prices unmercifully, and we feel safe in saying you never had a chance to buy dry goods as cheap as we are now selling. See the 8th page. Bort Bailey & Co.

It is but a few weeks until Christmas, and no doubt every reader of this paper has given some thought as to what they will get for their friends a Christmas present. We have just what you want, solid silverware. See it in our show window, and we are giving it away with that king of teas, the Monarch. Dunn Bros.

THE way our Goodyear storm rubbers are selling is a surprise to us. Don't take an Amazon or American, insist on the genuine Goodyear glove. You might as well have the best. Notice our eye openers in large ad. Another cut. We'll give 'em all they want. Brown Bros. & Lincoln.

We commence in the morning a grand clearing sale of furniture. We have adopted a new principal. Cash or credit, a small payment down, and the balance on your own time, weekly or monthly payments as you desire. We guarantee to save you 50 per cent. Frank D. Kimball.

We see by the Grand Rapids papers that the Majestic Steel Range people are having a great run there. J. W. Johnstone and his assistants know they have a grand range and are not afraid to tell the people.

THE Pickwick overcoats we are selling for $10, will fit any sized man or boy and are just as good as any overcoat a merchant tailor will charge you $25 for. T. J. Ziegler.

THOSE gentle cork sole shoes we are selling for $2.50 a pair, are the greatest bargains we ever had, in fact the best in Janesville. They are genuine calf skin and great sellers. Lloyd & Son.

We now make it easy for the poor as well as the rich to buy high grade furniture, and get it just as cheap as if they paid cash. Weekly or monthly payments. Frank D. Kimball.

OUR great reduction sale is proving a great success. The prices we have placed on suits, overcoats, and ulsters, brings hundreds of buyers. Saturday was another record breaker. T. J. Ziegler.

It's not profit we are after, it's volume of business, and to unload before we move. The prices we are naming cannot be duplicated outside our doors. See 8th page. Bort Bailey & Co.

A SUIT and an overcoat, or a suit and an ulster for $20, $10 each, less than they ask you for a suit alone in the other clothing stores, that's the way we are selling. T. J. Ziegler.

ALL our dry goods are this season's production; $50,000 worth of goods offered to you at less prices than goods that have laid in a house for a long time. Bort Bailey & Co.

We have some of the nicest underwear and hosiery for both ladies and gents you ever saw, we don't care to keep it any more, will dispose of it cheap. The Hub.

GLORY Hallelujah what a day we had Saturday. It seemed as though the county had turned out to take advantage of our prices. Five men, no boys, could not wait on our custom.

ers. The day goes down in the history of our store as the giant. Brown Bros. & Lincoln.

PRESIDENT W. T. Vankirk, I. C. Brownell and W. F. Carle, will submit their report in relation to the bicycle factory, a special meeting of the Business Men's Association being called for this purpose. It is desired that there be a full attendance of members.

THE street cars had a very difficult and slippery time in moving over the road this morning, the rails being covered with snow and ice, interfering materially with the ground connections.

R. J. WHITTON, private secretary to Assistant Secretary of War J. B. Doe, who has been spending two or three weeks in Janesville, left last evening for Washington.

WE are the only house in the city that has the genuine Mouch tea for fifty cents a pound and solid silverware thrown in. Nice Christmas present. Dunn Bros.

WE have sold several brands of perfumes but never had anything to equal Hudnut's, we can safely guarantee it to be the best. Prentice & Evenson.

ANTIQUE bedroom suites, a dresser, bedstead and washstand, bevel mirror, only $14, during our grand clearing sale. Cash or credit. Frank D. Kimball.

HUDNUT'S perfumes are the best ever offered in the city, costs one-third what imported perfumes do, and are better. For sale only by Prentice & Evenson.

NO one owns his rubber stock for less money than we do, and we are prepared to make prices as low or lower than anyone. Becker & Woodruff.

COME in and see the newest thing in an ulster, we are making up in our tailoring establishment. It's a dandy. J. Weisend, leading tailor.

OVERSTUFFED parlor suites of five pieces in tapestry, only $20 a suit, during our grand clearing sale. Cash or credit. Frank D. Kimball.

JANESVILLE horse shoers are doing a good business just now. The sudden freeze-up makes it necessary for all work horses to be shod.

THOSE suits we are selling for $10 each, are actually worth $18, and will cost you as much in any other house in the city. T. J. Ziegler.

GENUINE Irish Frieze ulsters with fancy wool lining only $7.50 each and fine extra long Melton dress overcoats $8.50 each at Grubb's.

WE always name the prices. No dodging with us. We allow no one to beat our prices. See the 8th page. Bort Bailey & Co.

WE never had a shoe that gave such general satisfaction as those ladies shoes as $1.35 a pair, actually worth $2. Lloyd & Son.

LAST week was by far the largest week's business we have ever had. Honest efforts seem to win, you see. Becker & Woodruff.

AN $18 suit and an $18 ulster for $20—$36 worth of clothing for $20. Who says we have not made a reduction? T. J. Ziegler.

BUTTER THIEVES GO TO STATES PRISON

TWO CLINTON BURGLARS GET A YEAR EACH.

Frank Burns and Thomas Brennan Plead Guilty to Robbing the Columbia Creamery—Their Attorney Thought the Punishment Meted Out to Them Was Light.

Stealing six tubs of butter will cost Frank Burns and Thomas Brennan each one year hard labor in the penitentiary at Waupun, Burns getting two days' solitary confinement and Brennan one day. The two were arrested for burglarizing the Columbia creamery at Clinton, securing six tubs of butter valued at $80. This morning when their case was called in the municipal court, both withdrew their former pleas of "not guilty" and pleaded "guilty" to the second count, that of larceny, and the court gave them one year in the penitentiary. Sheriff Bear took the prisoners to Waupun this afternoon.

"The boys got off light," remarked Silas Menzies, the Beloit attorney who defended them. "The evidence was strong against the boys, and when the district attorney consented to a nolle in the charge of burglary and allow them to enter a plea of guilty to larceny, I thought it was the easiest way for the boys. They certainly ought to be satisfied with one year."

When arraigned in municipal court this morning confronted with a charge of violating a city ordinance, that of forbidding the running at large of cattle, horses, sheep, swine, etc., Thomas F. Kelley wisely concluded to keep his stock secure upon his own premises, and after faithfully promising to do so, the case against him was dismissed.

The trial of Phillip Jones, colored, of Milton, on charge of larceny of a gold watch, is in progress in the municipal court this afternoon before a jury. W. A. Jackson appears for the state and Ezra Goodrich for the defendant.

MR. FETHERS A "SPELL-BINDER."

That Is What the Milwaukee Evening News Called Him.

Milwaukee's independent paper, the Evening News, pays Ogden H. Fethers this pretty little compliment: "The cry for Upham was growing in volume at every intermission, and when Ogden Fethers, of Janesville, was presented, after Mr. Adams, the sales were filled with people going from the hall. Mr. Fethers' brief, sharp, dramatic speech stopped the outward movement. No rally would be complete without a 'spell-binder,' and that is what Mr. Fethers proved himself to be."

HIS ARM TORN OFF BY A CRUEL SHAFT

FEARFUL ACCIDENT AT THE LOWER COTTON MILL.

While Fixing a Belt Arthur E. Badger Was Caught and Whirled About Injuring His Arm So Severely that It Was Amputated—Shoulder and Collar Bone Broken.

A whirling shaft twisted Arthur E. Badger's left arm off at the lower cotton mill this morning. All that connected the arm with his shoulder was a small piece of skin when his companions rescued him and in addition to the fracturing of the bones of the arm in several places his collar bone and shoulder were also broken, and a number of contusions and bruises were visible on the body. The fire patrol ambulance was called and the injured man was conveyed to his home, 106 Pearl street, where Dr. Henry Palmer amputated the arm and dressed the wounds.

The accident occurred this morning at half past seven o'clock. While Mr. Badger was standing on a ladder adjusting a belt, his clothing caught and in a trice the bones were cracked like pipe stems and he fell unconscious to the floor. The belt first caught his arm above the wrist, breaking both bones and almost severing the arm. The next revolution caught it up again and tore it from the shoulder where it hung to the body only by tender shreds of flesh and skin. Mr. Badger is a young man, is married and has a family of two small children. He will live unless something unforeseen happens.

Ask for Goodyear Glove.

There are some rubbers being offered to the public as first quality rubbers, when in fact they are only seconds. Every dealer knows the Goodyear Glove is the best rubber made. Mr. Wright is a brakeman in the employ of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad company. The remains will be taken to Monroe on the 6 o'clock train today, and funeral services will be held in that place tomorrow.

THE ACTRESS' WILES ARE MOST POTENT

STAGE WOMEN WHO HAVE CHARMED ROYALTY.

Miss Jeffreys, an Irish Actress, the Latest to Win a Husband—Some Stage Beauties of the Past Who Are in Upper Social Berths.

ANOTHER Alliance of a matrimonial character has been consummated between Great Britain's aristocracy and the stage. This time it is the second son of the earl of Howe, while the lady is an Irish girl by the name of Miss Jeffreys, who is the principal attraction just now at Terry's theater in London. The affection between the two is of long standing and they were to have been married two years ago, when the engagement was broken off in deference to the protests of Lord and Lady Howe. It is understood that neither the earl nor the countess have relented in the matter, and that they have cut off the allowance of their son Freddy as a manifestation of their displeasure, the result being that the new Mrs. Curzon has thrown up none of her theatrical engagements, but keeps on performing, presumably with the object of keeping the pot boiling for herself and her husband. His older brother, Lord Curzon, as well as Lady Curzon, the best four in hand whip in England, and their only boy, a 10-year-old lad, were upset with the coach the other day and came narrowly near losing their lives, in which case the husband of Miss Jeffreys would have become Viscount Curzon and heir to the earldom. It does not necessarily follow that because a peeress or lady belonging by marriage to the aristocracy has been on the stage she is barred forever from appearance at court. Queen Victoria merely insists that no lady should be presented at court as long as she is on the stage. And as an illustration thereof it is only necessary to point out that Lady Martin, who spent a part of her life on the stage, is not only frequently admitted to the queen's dinner table, but is treated with the most marked friendship and consideration by her majesty. In this Victoria follows the example of her grandmother, Queen Charlotte, the wife of King George II. When the Lord Derby of those days married the famous Miss Farren, the newly wedded countess wrote to ascertain what Queen Charlotte's views were as to her appearance at court. Her majesty, who was infinitely more straitlaced than the present occupant of the British throne, replied that she had no objection to Lady Derby's appearance at court, because she had heard that Miss Farren, during her theatrical career, had always borne a most excellent reputation. It is merely because Queen Victoria would be unable to make a reply of this kind to any request of the same character in their cases that the gates of Buckingham palace remain closed to the countess of Clancarty, nee Belle Bilton; to the dowager marchioness of Ailesbury, nee Dolly Tester; to the countess of Orkney, nee Connie Gilchrist, and the Hon. Mrs. Hubert Duncombe, nee Nellie Lamar, who is therefore the sister-in-law of the lovely duchess of Leinster, of Lady Helen Vincent and of Lady Ulrika Duncombe. Of course there was also the morganatic wife of the duke of Cambridge, who was a Dublin actress; while on the continent there are a number of royal princes and great nobles who have sought their wives upon the stage, the most notable case being that of the late King Ferdinand of Portugal, who married as his second wife a Boston actress of the name of Sophie Hensler, upon whom he conferred the title of countess of Edla in her own right. Prince Alexander of Battenberg, the former ruler of Bulgaria, jilted Emperor William's sister, Victoria, to marry the actress Mlle. Loisinger. Prince Windischgraetz, uncle of the present prime minister of Austria, married, not morganatically, but in the fullest sense of the word, one of the Tagliani girls, the most notable ballerinas of the present century. The reigning duke of Saxe-Meiningen is married morganatically to an actress, and so, too, is the eldest brother of the empress of Austria.

SQUAW MEN.

Characters Held in Just Contempt Among Mexicans. The discovery that Henry Graeme had been personating a girl, Etta, as a servant in a Brooklyn house, finds its counterpart among the Mexican householders in the Spanish-American regions of the United States. Cases in these regions are not infrequent of persons, male by sex, who all their lives have chosen to wear women's clothes and to labor at those household avocations reckoned distinctively as woman's. Such a case is thus described by a visitor to New Mexico: "Stopping to dine at a little plaza about twenty miles south of Santa Fe, my driver, an old timer, called my attention to what seemed to be a strapping woman working among the female servants of the wealthy old Mexican don's household across the way. This slabsided, rather ungainly person with coarse features and a chin that suggested the razor, was attired in a calico gown, wore gold earrings and had the hair braided behind. 'It's a man, such as it is,' said the driver. 'All he has to say about his wearing of woman's togs is that when a boy his mother always dressed him in girl's clothes, and he never learned to dress differently. As he grew up he was set to work about the house with the women, where he is now, treated with about the same sort of forbearance and contempt that a "squaw man" receives among Indians. As I put it up, it was to get rid of being set to the hard, dangerous work of herding cattle and sheep when Indians were bad in the territory, that cowardly boys growing up to be peons, virtually slaves, to the wealthy Mexicans, chose to be squaws and work with the women. You'll find such cases now here and there in the Mexican towns and among the Indian pueblos.'"

A Merry Emperor. The Emperor William is generally supposed to be a man of austere life, rigid and punctilious in his intercourse with those about him, and habitually absorbed in affairs of state. An evening on the imperial yacht Hohenzollern is anything but dull, says the San Francisco Argonaut. Eccentric variety performances are provided, consisting of singing and playing in character, exhibitions of rapid sketching in caricature, impromptu verse making, etc. Among the participants in these merry-makings are ambassadors, ministers and professors, who are included among the emperor's guests.

Physical Development Increasing. Two statues lately exhibited in Boston were modeled after measurements made from the average man and the average woman. The statue of the average woman is the result of 5,000 measurements made by Dr. Sargent of Harvard, who says that it is 50 per cent removed from the perfect type. The faults of the figure are the hollow back and a weak waist. The oval fullness about the chest, it is said, is not found in any female figure in art. While the average woman may still fall far short of perfection in her physical make up, the number of vigorous, well formed young women who take an active interest in out of door life and physical development is increasing every day.

Death Roll of Forest Fires. The death roll of the western forest fires is a long one. It seems certain that more than 600 persons perished in the fire at Hinkley. The population of the place before the calamity was about 1,200. Evidently more than half the inhabitants were caught by the flames. There is grave reason to fear that the total number of the dead will never be known. Possibly it might reach a thousand. The fires have burned over twenty counties, and sixteen towns have been destroyed.

PHYSICAL EXERCISE. Avoid Tailor Made Gowns If Your Carriage Is Not Erect. A writer on physical development says the human frame is like a tree and grows as it is bent. Stopping, pushing the head forward weakens the lungs. Always in walking lift the feet and put them down firmly, but lightly. Put down the front of the foot first, not the heel, and rest your weight on the ball of your foot, so that the center of gravity falls plumb through your hips and the muscles of your lower limbs

GREEN CLOTH COSTUME. Instead of at the end of the spine. The muscles of the hips and waist should be trained to bear their full share of the weight of the body, and so preserve the elasticity of the figure. A good exercise for this end is to sit bolt upright for half an hour at a time reading, sewing or doing whatever you like, only not letting yourself sink down into your hips. An excellent exercise for training young people to hold their heads properly is the carrying a weight of some sort poised on the head. The colored women of the southern states, who from childhood are accustomed to carry burdens in this manner, are models for sculptors in the carriage of head and neck.

The woman who has not an erect carriage should avoid severely tailor made garments fitting closely to the figure. Folds and gathers disguise the bad lines of the form that are pitilessly revealed by a perfectly plain gown. A round shouldered person usually looks best in a bodice with a full back and a skirt with a large allowance of material gathered into the waistband behind. Shirred bodices are becoming to very slender women, and the present fashion of immense sleeves is an admirable device for widening narrow shoulders.

Didn't Mind Converts. There is one delightful anecdote touching the king of Ava's reply to the request of an American missionary for leave to try to make converts among the king's subjects. The king told Dr. Price that he granted his request and that he might preach his religion, but whenever his subjects were converted by it he should cut off their heads and send them at once into the paradise of which the doctor had told them.—Athenaeum.

Helmholtz's Remarkable Brain. In order to satisfy scientific men as to the real cause of Professor Helmholtz's death, says the London Telegraph's Berlin correspondent, a post mortem examination was made at the desire of his relatives, the chief results of which are as follows: As a consequence of the paralytic strokes the left portion of the brain was considerably softened, while the right portion was perfectly normal and sound. The brain displayed unusually numerous cerebral sinuations, such as are known to be generally observed in the brains of persons of very great intellect. The physicians and pathologists who conducted the examination were extremely interested in what they saw, and a cast of the brain was immediately taken. Other organs of the body showed some signs of disorder, but in his lifetime the deceased had not experienced any inconvenience therefrom.

Going by Wind Power. On an Irish Railway—I say, guard, how is it we're going so fast today? "Why wouldn't we, sor? Sure we've got the wind behind us."—London Globe.

A Modest Request. The relative of a certain manufacturer married and built a house, and the manufacturer made him a present of window fasteners for the same. # THOSE GOOD OLD DAYS ARE HERE!

You all remember how we used to sing that song, and wonder how long it would be until they arrived. The time has been much shorter than we supposed. Did you ever in your whole life time know of a single instance when you could buy such clothing as quoted below for less than 50 per cent more? No, you cannot recall one single instance. If Ziegler was not in business here you could not get such bargains now. Walk down the street, stop into the different clothing stores and you will hear them all, with one accord, kicking about Ziegler cutting the prices. They say: "We used to make good profits, but now that Ziegler has commenced to slash his high grade merchandise we cannot even sell at our cost figures."

They don't buy right

Read the following prices, then glance below and you will be convinced that we can sell the cheapest:

Reason with yourself

A house being connected with a company having branches all over the country, using millions of dollars worth of good, buying exclusively for cash have, naturally, the advantage of other houses, and should surely sell goods cheaper than any house in Janesville. We defy any one to meet the above prices, same quality considered.

THE BRITISH EMPIRE.

It is Unparalleled in the World's History.

The British empire is a political creation unparalleled in the world's history, not only by its extent and population, in both of which respects it is slightly surpassed by China, but because, with an area of more than 10,000,000 square miles and 352,000,000 inhabitants, it is scattered over the whole globe. It embraces all zones from the icy wilderness of Hudson bay to the tropical jungles of India and the mahogany forests of Honduras; there is scarcely a product which a British province does not bring forth in excellent quality, and not less various are the degrees of civilization of its inhabitants from the Kaffirs of the Cape to the highly cultivated citizens of Toronto or Sydney. We find with Christians of all confessions 200,000,000 Hindoos, about 70,000,000 Mohammedans and 8,000,000 Buddhists, and the Bible is printed in 130 languages and dialects represented in the empire, yet, notwithstanding such promiscuous elements, the government, with rare exceptions, maintains order and no sign of dissolution is visible.

A Disputed Case.

Many persons dispute the question as to whether or not baldness caused either by disease or neglect can be cured. In deciding the question allow us to say that most cases can be cured, while others can not. Only a specialist of years of experience can tell this. Professor Birkholz, the world-renowned German specialist of the Masonic Temple, Chicago, where those who desire a good head of hair or beard can consult him in private, and free of charge. After a thorough examination, which costs you nothing, we will tell you whether or not you may procure that trait of personal adornment so necessary to your existence, and if we find that the follicles are not all dead, we will treat you and guarantee the results or ask no pay. Call on or address Professor Birkholz, 1011 Masonic Temple, Chicago, Ill.

Send him this notice to your first class druggist and he will get the Remedy for you at once, if he has not got it in stock.

PRIVATE DALZELL.

Never Rose from the Ranks—A Conspicuous G. A. R. Man.

Few men who attended the national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic at Pittsburg are better known to the public than Private Dalzell of Caldwell, Ohio. His unique and pungent contributions to the press have frequently attracted attention, not the least spicy being that which, not long ago, he issued to the private soldier veterans, protesting against their practical exclusion from the governing councils of the order. Private Dalzell, whose full name is James D. Dalzell, was born about fifty years ago in Allegheny City, but moved to Ohio when a boy with his family. Shortly after the outbreak of the war he joined the Union forces, and remained in the army until the surrender at Appomattox. Though his army record is good he remained in the ranks, and now is rather proud of the fact. He was one of the founders of the Grand Army and has always been an enthusiastic promoter of the soldiers' reunion.

PRIVATE JAMES D. DALZELL.

By profession he is a lawyer and has served several terms in the Ohio legislature. His life has been a busy one, and now that he has enough of the world's goods to last him through life he declares his intention of passing his remaining years in quiet.

WE WANT TO TELL YOU SOMETHING!

That you ought to know and probably do know. Dun's commercial reports show it and the prices bear out the fact. Dry Goods in all lines have decreased in value 25 per cent within a year.

Now bearing the above statement in mind we ask you to consider:

First—You who know us; know that we always have been careful, conservative buyers. We have never plunged in over buying and heavily overloaded our stock with goods to carry year after year and lose money on.

Second—When this great slump in prices came it did not find us with a great big pile of merchandise, bought one, two, or three years ago, that had to be worked off onto the people.

Third—Being in the best of positions to take advantage of this remarkable decline in prices, we have added to our stock within the past 90 days over $50,000 worth of splendid dry goods bargains

With this large, NEW STOCK of goods we are in position to sell hundreds of items at prices less than they cost some dealers, and still afford us a fair margin.

REASON THIS OUT WITH YOUR OWN GOOD COMMON SENSE

Then read our prices that we come right out with, fair and square, no dodging, and then consider our extraordinary efforts to gain your patronage.

We Will Sell .	Lowell Ingrain Carpets, -	45c	50 pieces 25c Dress Goods -	17c
